UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

ORACLE AMERICA, INC.

Plaintiff,

v.

GOOGLE INC.

Defendant.

Case No. 3:10-cv-03561-WHA

Honorable Judge William Alsup

JOINT MEMORANDUM REGARDING THE COURT'S TENTATIVE CASE PLAN

1 Plaintiff Oracle America, Inc. ("Oracle") and Defendant Google Inc. ("Google") present
2 their views on the Court's May 11, 2011 Notice re Tentative Case Plan. As directed, the parties
3 engaged in a meet and confer, during which the parties reached agreement on some points and 4 remain in disagreement on others. This memorandum summarizes these points of agreement and 5 outstanding disputes.

6 I. Agreed Points

- 7 1. The current fact discovery cut-off remains in effect, and the parties shall conduct
8 discovery and file motions with the assigned Magistrate-Judge accordingly.
- 9 2. By June 1, 2011, Oracle shall narrow its patent infringement case to no more than 50 10 asserted claims.
- 11 3. By June 15, 2011, Google shall narrow its invalidity case to no more than six grounds 12 of invalidity per asserted claim. A reference or set of references setting forth an 13 anticipation or obviousness theory shall be counted by "chart" pursuant to Patent 14 L.R. 3-3(c) (i.e., anticipation by a reference shall be counted as one ground for 15 purposes of this paragraph; references setting forth an obviousness combination shall 16 be counted as another ground). Other grounds shall be counted by stated legal theory, 17 e.g., "enablement," "lack of written description," "improper broadening."
- 18 4. The Court will entertain a summary judgment motion by Google on the copyright 19 issue, and Oracle may seek the Court's leave to file a summary judgment motion on 20 copyright issues as well. Briefing on copyright issues will adhere to the following 21 schedule:
 - 22 a. Opening brief(s) on August 1, 2011;
 - 23 b. Opposition brief(s) on August 19, 2011; and
 - 24 c. Reply briefs on August 29, 2011.
- 25 5. Other summary judgment motions will be entertained only upon obtaining leave 26 pursuant to the Court's previous order to that effect.
- 27 6. The trial remains set to begin on October 31. The trial, addressing all issues, will last 28 for three weeks.

1 II. Disputed Issues

2 The parties could not reach agreement on the following issues:

3 A. Final Number of Claims and Defenses for Trial

4 7a. Oracle's proposal: By September 1, 2011, or no later than 15 days after a ruling
5 on any pending patent-related summary judgment motions allowed pursuant to 6 paragraph 5 above, whichever is later, Oracle shall narrow its patent infringement
7 case to no more than 21 asserted claims. By no later than 15 days after Oracle's
8 narrowing of claims pursuant to this paragraph, Google shall narrow its invalidity
9 case to no more than four grounds of invalidity per claim. In the alternative,
10 Oracle proposes that any narrowing of claims to be asserted at trial be addressed
11 by the parties in papers submitted in connection with the final pre-trial
12 conference. Oracle opposes any other approach to narrowing its asserted claim on 13 the grounds set forth in its response to the Court's May 4, 2011 Order.

14 7b. Google's proposal: Google believes that the Court's initial plan for narrowing the 15 claims makes the case more manageable for the Court and the jury, and is the best
16 use of judicial resources. Google proposed a compromise of 10 to 14 claims to be 17 asserted by Oracle (upon which the parties could not reach agreement) and 18 believes the Court has the authority to limit the number of claims asserted to one
19 claim per patent without depriving Oracle of due process in asserting its claims.
20 See In re Katz Interactive Call Processing Patent Lit., Case No. 2009-1450 et al.,
21 97 U.S.P.Q.2d 1737, 1744-45, 2011 WL 607381, *4, (Fed. Cir. Feb. 18, 2011)
22 (rejecting plaintiff's argument that district court's narrowing of claims for trial 23 violated due process). Google otherwise agrees that no later than 15 days after 24 Oracle's narrowing of claims pursuant to this paragraph, Google shall narrow its 25 invalidity case to no more than four grounds of invalidity per claim.

B. Stay Pending Resolution of Reexamination Proceedings

- 8a. Oracle's proposal: Pursuant to the Court's May 11, 2011 Notice re Tentative Case Plan, no stay will be granted pending reexamination. Oracle will bear the risk of subsequent adverse events in reexamination pursuant to applicable law.
- 8b. Google's proposal: To the extent that Oracle intends to assert a large number of claims at trial, resulting in a complicated and extremely burdensome trial, Google defers to the Court's discretion to grant a stay pending reexamination. In the event that there is no stay, Oracle will take the risk that claims selected for trial will be cancelled or modified during re-examination
